

"One is not born into the world to do everything, but to do something."

Henry David Thoreau

RTP relies on volunteers to carry out our mission. If you think you need to know how to use a power tool to help, think again. Many projects and ongoing committees do not require any home repair skills – just a willingness to lead. Behind-the-scenes volunteers minimize management expenses and lead to more support for homeowners in need.

Yes, I want to volunteer for RTP! Please contact me to help with:

- Hospitality Pool: support volunteers on work days (waiver forms, food and t-shirt distribution)
- Team Leader: lead small groups of new volunteers at a special 1-day work day
- Operations Committee: homeowner selection, work scopes, materials lists, logistics
- Public Relations Committee: increase RTP's profile in the Philadelphia region
- Community Outreach: develop relationships with other organizations and homeowners
- Fund Development Committee: raise funds for RTP
